THE WOMEN AND CHILDREN.

Their Wants Have Been Looked After at the Coming Carnival.

At the Ohio State Fair recently held at Columbus there appeared Fred Lark's Great Arabian Horse and Dog Show, which was visited by patrons who pronounced it a wonderful exhibition. His collection of animals astonished the crowds by their marvelous forms and positive intelligence, doing nearly everything but vociferate. Mr. James W. Fitzgerald, who is one of the party of Maysville merchants who are behind the Carnival and Horse Show to be held at the Fairgrounds next week, put himself in communication with Mr. Lark, and the result is an engagement of the popular amusement for that week. It is to be seen twice daily, afternoon and night, for the three days next week. Twenty-five cents is a very low admission and the line of attractions, the liberal premiums, the excellent music, the races, races and novelties certainly should be an ample reward to draw a very large crowd of visitors to our city. Let it be emphasized that at night are lamps are to be used for lighting the track and amphitheater, so there can be no cessation of pleasure. Imagine, if you please, how rapidly popular, how originally original, how bewilderingly beautiful will be the night shows. It is a novelty, a unique idea, which will herald the ability of Maysville and cause hundreds to come who can't help but appreciate this daring desire to be the first to use the night for what before was one of the impossible things. Thursday night, at 10:30 p. m., the fair bag and can come out after dinner and night at Saturday, September 21st, 10:30 p. m., which dates fall in next week. Remember now.

OLD GLORY ALOFT

Flag Raising Yesterday in School District No. 50.

PURELY PATRIOTIC OCCASION.

The handsome new schoolhouse in District No. 50, Orlanburg, presented an animated appearance yesterday afternoon, filled and crowded as it was with parents, school children, members of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics and others, the occasion being the presentation of a Flag and Bible to the school by the representatives of this patriotic organization.

The school building is one of the newest and most complete in this section, and reflects great credit upon Messrs. George N. Harding, Thomas W. Tolle and Benjamin Sweet, the Trustees under whose direction it was erected.

The teachers, Mr. Charles Turpin and Principal and Miss Violet Graham Assistant, are worthy of praise for the handsome appearance of the surroundings and for the excellent department of the scholars.

The exercises opened with the hymn "America," in which the entire assembly joined.

This was followed by prayer by the Rev. T. H. Stratton of Sedley's Chapel.

Dr. C. A. Janes of Newport, one of the state officials of the Junior Order, delivered an address, setting forth the principles of the Order, and among which was the perpetuity of the American system of Free Schools.

Following this Mr. Thomas M. Russell, Past Counselor of Juva V. Keesh Council No. 10 of this city, in a very elegant and appropriate address, presented to the Trustees of the School an American Flag, to be kept during the year.

On behalf of the Trustees the Flag was accepted by Mr. Thomas A. Davis, and at the conclusion of his remarks it was raised on the staff which had been provided for it.

As the Flag unfurled to the breeze the children sang the patriotic air "Red, White and Blue."

Mr. Russell then presented the Trustees with a copy of the Bible, which was accepted by Mr. George N. Harding, with the promise that it should always have a place in the schoolroom.

The Rev. J. W. Harrop was then introduced and in an address which was replete with wit, pathos and patriotism, he entertained the audience most delightfully for some twenty minutes.

A song closed the program for the evening and the exercises dispensed.

This was the first formal flag raising on a Public School building in Mason county, but the Junior Order will see to it that hereafter every Public School is furnished with a copy of Old Glory.

POINTS ON POYNTZ

Gov. John Young Brown Hot After Our Own Charlie.

PLEASED WITH HIS RECEPTION

Covington Commonwealth.

A representative of the Commonwealth has had the pleasure of an interview with John Young Brown, the giant standard-bearer of Democracy.

Governor Brown had just returned from his Maysville trip, and though tired out and hoarse, greeted the Commonwealth man cordially and paid the paper a gratifying tribute for its uniform adherence to the cause of the people. He was in excellent spirits and not a spark of his old-time fire has departed from him.

"I think the best meeting of the year was that at Maysville," said he. "It is the home of Charlie Poyntz, one of the State Election Commissioners and a member of the famous Committee on Credentials of the Louisville Convention. I was introduced to a magnificent audience by James H. Hall, President of the Hall Flow Works, and the reception I had from his hearers warmed the very cockles of my heart. The Goebel Election Law, of course, formed a leading feature of my speech, and one point I made in that regard caught the vast audience immediately. It was that," said the Governor, "an officer at election is disqualified from acting if he has made a wager on the result of the election at which he is to officiate. The law on the subject is mandatory; he disqualifies himself the moment he lays a wager on the election, and the proper authorities are compelled to remove him when the matter has been officially brought to their notice."

"Now, then," said I to the audience, "that being the fact with reference to an election official to be in contact at only one of the 130 and 135 precincts, how should it be with one of the three election officials vested with power over the entire result of the election in the entire State? How should it be with one of the three gentlemen, Messrs. Poyntz, Forst and Mills, whose judgment on all matters pertaining to the regularity of the action and whose count is final under the provisions of the Goebel Election Law? And yet in this very city of Maysville Charles B. Poyntz, one of these three Election Commissioners for the entire State of Kentucky, one of these three gentlemen in whose hands the Goebel Election Law has placed the final judgment on the election in next November for Governor, this very gentleman, Charles B. Poyntz, is offering to lay a wager of $300 with anyone that William Goebel will be elected Governor of Kentucky. What should be the judgment in his case when the election official of a mere Precinct is disqualified from acting if he has any betting whatever wagered or depending on the result of the election?"

"The vast audience caught the point and appreciated it," said Governor Brown. "And yet that same day that same gentleman, Charles B. Poyntz, one of the three State Election Commissioners, is offering to lay wagers on the result of the election. What should be done with a Juror or with a Judge who should lay a wager on the result of a case pending before them?"

NEW! NOTES FROM NATURE'S GREAT HIGHWAY.

There will likely be a little coal get out of the Kanawha on the present rise.

The R. A. Woodruff is putting out the obstructions at the upper end of the Ohio.

The Reuben Dunbar and the Argand have been the low water boats in the Cincinnati and Kentucky trade.

Coal operators at Pittsburgh hereafter will take free risks in shipping coal on ocean water, the accident which occurred at the trap Tuesday night having caused a feeling of caution among those interested in river business. It is used to be the common practice to send barges of coal out on dry feet of water, but hereafter an 8-foot stage will be needed to get the majority of operators to ship tons. The whole trouble is due to the conditions at new dam, where the accident occurred, and the general opinion is that dredging will not help matters. The three rivers are still alive.

Allen Higelow and Miss Rhoda Thomas escaped from Fleming county this week and married at Portsmouth.

Mr. Oliver Meadler, Esq. of Ashland and Miss Jessie Krieger of Paris will wed Tuesday, October 16th, at the bride's home. Miss Krieger is well known in this city, where she has been often visiting friends.

The most delicate constitution can safely use Cassen's Honey of Tar. It is a sure and pleasant remedy for coughs, loss of voice and all throat and lung troubles. Price 25c and 50c. J. Jas. Wood & Son.

A Hearty Laugh.

"Laugh and grow fat in an old man, and a good one," says Dr. Simmons in current literature of The Medical Adviser, "and it requires very little persuasion to realize that a person who laughs frequently and heartily, has a use for medicine. A despondent or dyspeptic person should cultivate laughter by means of amusing and interesting entertainments, say for instance, a comedy like 'Cary's Troubles,' and I venture the assertion that such a play contains more life-giving tonic than a whole barrel of patent medicines."

WE FEEL

a certain but pardonable pride in our merchandise that gives us license to say that there are few clothing houses like ours. You cannot make a mistake by trying us.

We are more particular in selecting for our patrons than they frequently are themselves. Nothing leaves our house that does not undergo a thorough examination as to quality and fit. This is the main factor of not only retaining our large clientele, but constantly adding new customers.

Our Fall Line will surprise you.

For the little ones we have secured the latest novelties in Suits, Reefers and Topcoats. Mothers, when the time comes you want to look at them. Our entire fall stock is now in the house. This includes our Men's and Boy's Shoes.
